

Artwork created by children enrolled at these Wells early childhood programs to celebrate the Week of the Young Child:

- Adventures in Learning
- Be Happy Preschool
- Brilliant Bloomers
- Busy Feet Daycare
- Cranton-Thomes Day School, Inc.
- Laugh and Learn Preschool
- The Learning Place Day School
- Roots and Wings Preschool will be displayed April 11- 20 at:

- Children's Room, Wells Public Library – Post Rd. (Rte 1)
- People's Choice Credit Union – 774 Post Rd. (Rte. 1)
- Kennebunk Savings Bank – 49 Sanford Rd. (Rte. 109)
- People's United Bank – 1597 Post Rd. (Rte 1)
- Sanford Institution for Savings – 1149 Post Rd. (Rte 1)

and then on April 21 – 28 at:

The Historical Society of Wells and Ogunquit Meetinghouse
938 Post Rd. (Rte 1) during the regular hours (Tuesday and Friday 10 to 5 and Saturday 10 to 1)

The Week of the Young Child™ is an annual celebration sponsored by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC). The purpose of the Week of the Young Child™ is to focus public attention on the needs of young children and their families and to recognize the early childhood programs and services that meet those needs. In York County, the Week of the Young Child™ is supported by the York County Early Childhood Coalition, hosted by the United Way of York County.